

Data Protection Policy – HANDD RECRUITMENT

The comprehensive example of Data we process yet to be consented and take consent accordingly being liable to GDPR include Employee Registration Forms including last five years address history, career journey; EDBS Checking, Medical Questionnaire inquiry including further requirement along the employment period.

Our emphasis for Data Protection policy is demonstrated as follows;

We always process every information with mutual consent of individual.

The all data records in our possession is always available to individual on monthly basis.

If any information needs to be edited also endorsed by official sources, it's readily rectifiable.

We implement feasible feedback as per individuals' preferences.

We never process or utilize the personal data while investigating.

Yes, the right to erasure is always available on one day notice when requested by the subject individual.

We only keep our inquiry limited to relevant details needed for employment evaluation.

For all Data possession and processing, we have annual update policy implemented by the individual itself to update all relevant details. Otherwise it becomes obsolete itself.

We keep our data secured through DropBox among other cloud storages, all of which are accessible through two-step verification, ensuring the safeguards effectively working.

For all our sub-contractors, we require them to implement identical level of compliance and security measures as H&D Recruitment itself.

We aim to be certified with following endorsements and working towards it;

ISO 27001

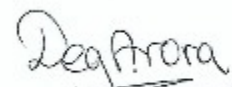

Level 2 NHS toolkit
